

Appendix C: Site Photographs

---

The photographs depicted in this section show general habitat and features of the site and surrounding area. This should be read in conjunction with the photographic records provided by the specialists in Appendix E (Annexures E1 – E15) where photographic records of specific features relevant to each specialist discipline are included.

