

Figure 1: The site has been transformed throughout the years, there is little to no indigenous vegetation left.

Figure 2: Secondary grassland.

Figure 3: There was One Milkwood tree identified on site. The tree is stunted, deformed and not of good form.

Figure 4: Indigenous Forest thicket encroaching into the site.

Figure 5: Horse grazing on site.